

Kane Financial, LLC Website Privacy Policy

Effective Date: June 2026

Website Privacy Policy

Kane Financial, LLC ("Kane Financial," "we," "our," or "us") is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our website. This Website Privacy Policy describes the information we collect through our website, how we use that information, and the choices available to website visitors.

This Website Privacy Policy applies solely to information collected through our website and does not replace or modify the Kane Financial Privacy Policy provided to advisory clients.

Information We Collect

When you visit our website, certain information may be collected automatically through your browser or device. This information may include:

- Internet Protocol (IP) address
- Browser type and version
- Device type and operating system
- Referring website or source
- Pages viewed and time spent on pages
- Date and time of website visits
- General geographic location information derived from IP address

This information is generally collected in aggregate form and is not used by Kane Financial to identify individual visitors.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to improve website functionality, enhance user experience, and analyze website traffic.

Cookies are small data files stored on your device by your web browser. Most web browsers allow users to control or disable cookies through browser settings. Disabling cookies may affect certain website functionality.

Google Analytics

Kane Financial uses Google Analytics to better understand how visitors interact with our website.

Google Analytics may collect information such as:

- Pages visited
- Time spent on pages

- Navigation patterns
- Device information
- Browser information
- General geographic location information

This information helps us evaluate website performance and improve website content and user experience.

Google Analytics collects information in accordance with Google's own privacy practices. Additional information regarding Google Analytics can be found at www.google.com/policies/privacy/.

Scheduling Tools

Kane Financial may provide access to a third-party scheduling platform, such as Calendly, to facilitate appointment scheduling.

When you use a scheduling tool, you may be asked to provide information such as your name, email address, telephone number, and preferred appointment times. Information submitted through the scheduling platform is used to arrange appointments, respond to inquiries, and evaluate prospective client relationships.

Scheduling services are provided by third-party vendors and may collect, process, and store information in accordance with their own privacy policies and terms of use. Kane Financial encourages visitors to review the privacy practices of any third-party service provider before submitting information.

How We Use Information

Information collected through our website may be used to:

- Operate and maintain our website
- Monitor website performance and security
- Analyze website traffic and visitor behavior
- Improve website content and functionality
- Respond to inquiries or communications directed to Kane Financial
- Comply with legal and regulatory obligations

We do not sell personal information collected through our website.

Information Security

Kane Financial maintains administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect information collected through our website from unauthorized access, use, alteration, or disclosure.

While we take reasonable precautions to protect information, no method of electronic transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

Artificial Intelligence and Technology Tools

Kane Financial may utilize technology tools, including artificial intelligence-enabled systems, to support business operations, research, document management, communications, and client service activities.

Such tools are used subject to policies, procedures, and oversight designed to protect confidential information and comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites and services, including appointment scheduling platforms, for the convenience of visitors.

Kane Financial does not control and is not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or security of third-party websites. Visitors should review the privacy policies of any external websites they choose to visit.

Privacy Rights

Depending on your state of residence and applicable law, you may have certain rights regarding personal information.

Questions regarding privacy practices or privacy-related requests may be directed to Kane Financial using the contact information below.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

Kane Financial may update this Website Privacy Policy periodically to reflect changes in technology, legal requirements, or business practices.

Any updates will be posted on this page with a revised effective date.
